Welcome to the first issue of MN ADOPT Insider. This new version of our newsletter will come out quarterly and will give you a chance to stay informed about current events and happenings at MN ADOPT, as well as provide you with in-depth information about our programming and ways that you can help with our mission of promoting and supporting successful adoptions for Minnesota children and families.

This first issue will be a little longer because we want to take an opportunity to give an overview of our programming and the work our dedicated staff do on a daily basis. So grab a cup of coffee and take a few minutes to reintroduce yourself to MN ADOPT!

State Adoption Exchange Connecting Children and Families for 35 Years

For over 35 years MN ADOPT has worked with the State of Minnesota to recruit for, place and support Minnesota children in need of permanent, loving families! The children are of all ages and ethnicities, yet predominantly of school age. Some are in sibling groups and many are teens. One of MN ADOPT's goals is to raise awareness of Minnesota's Waiting Children through a variety of activities. The State Adoption Exchange (SAE) is an important part of this, although one that for the most part is behind the scenes. We work on behalf of children in foster care through a database where families are matched with Minnesota children and youth, through a variety of public events such as festivals and fairs, media like the Star Tribune and television, and matching events where home studied families can meet and interact in fun ways with the waiting children. We also provide adoption information and resources for all aspects of adoption, from first call through finalization and beyond. If you have any type of question about adoption, give us a call! Take a look at our comprehensive website and Meet the Kids!

As we end our most recent fiscal year we would like to share a number with you ~ at this moment, approximately 293 youth are registered on the SAE. These children are in immediate need of permanent, committed families. Some are in foster families, some are in group homes. All are waiting for someone like you to give them a place they can call home, forever. Considering recent changes in child welfare policy, there will be more children coming into foster care--children of all ages.

Within the last year MN ADOPT engaged with KSTP television's Twin Cities Live to create a brand new weekly feature called Kid Connection. Check out this beautifully done program here: Kid Connection Features. Within the first year, 22 youth were featured and 10 found adoptive homes with the help of Kid Connection! At this time, 14 have been matched and are on their way to a new life.

Our question to you is this: If you could make a difference in the life of a child, would you? Contact us at 612-861-7115 or info@mnadopt.org for information on how to get started.

HELP Program

Support and Referral for Families and Professionals.

Did you know that Minnesota has a unique FREE program specific to providing post-adoption clinical support and resource linkage assistance to the Minnesota adoption community?

The HELP Program is an innovative program developed by the MN ADOPT organization to provide post-adoption clinical support and resource linkage to the Minnesota adoption community. Since it began in 2011, the HELP

Program has experienced considerable program growth and increasing use by members of the adoption community - from July 2015 - July 2016 alone, the HELP Program assisted a total of 286 adoptive/foster/kinship family and 275 community professional situations!

Why might someone contact the HELP Program?

Adoption comes with unique challenges and needs that require expert, knowledgeable support and guidance throughout the lifespan. Receiving ongoing support from professionals that understand the many layers that adoption has can be crucial for the individual and family's stability.

Below are just a few examples of why people contact the HELP Program:

- families or community professionals experiencing child(ren) behavioral challenges within the home or school environment
- the need for adoption competent therapeutic referrals (the HELP Program manages a large pool of vetted adoption competent therapists across the state)
- assistance getting connected to parental focused support and education on early trauma, attachment, identity that is tailored to their unique situation and needs...etc.

The following links give additional examples of why individuals/families and professionals contact the HELP Program for assistance.

Training Program Online, In-Person and On-Demand

Over the past year, MN ADOPT has offered 52 training sessions, which have provided educational opportunities to 972 individuals. We offer training opportunities for adoptive, kinship, and foster families and the professionals who serve them, as well as needed resources, tools and information that go beyond our sponsored trainings.

MN ADOPT offers two ongoing training series that are scheduled throughout the year. They include the Reactive Attachment Disorder Learning Alternative Behavioral Strategies (RAD LABS)

The 500 Minnesota children in foster care need all of us to work together to ensure they can each have a safe and nurturing family to call their own. The following are ways that you can help make this a reality:

- Learn about the possibility of becoming a foster, adoptive or respite family to a child in foster care.
- Encourage those in your community to consider becoming a resource for a child.
- Spread the word about children in need of a family! Follow MN ADOPT through social media and share our posts that highlight children in need of a family.
